

Justice & Equality

in Dayton

Launching a Movement to Challenge Economic Injustice

Edie Rasell, Ph.D.

Workshop Guest Speaker

New information and break out sessions on economic justice issues.

Join us, to integrate conscience with action to challenge economic injustice in our local community.

Congregation for Reconciliation founded in 1968 has a mission to challenge social injustice and value our lives together through:

- Study
- Action
- Celebration
- Worship

Upcoming events...

Good Friday Walk for Justice and Peace

Friday, April 18th, Noon, Courthouse Square

L.E.A.D. Annual Action

Monday, April 28th

About Dr. Rasell...

Edith Rasell is known for making economic matters understandable, relevant, and interesting. She holds a Ph.D. in economics. Now with the United Church of Christ, she worked for the Economic Policy Institute for 12 years.

She has testified before Congressional Committees on a variety of issues and has been cited in various forms of media. In addition, Dr. Rasell has been published in American Economic Review, the New England Journal of Medicine, and other press.

No Registration Fee.

Date: April 12, 2014

Time: 9:30AM-Noon

Location: Memorial Hall

(Downtown Dayton)

125 East First Street

Dayton, Ohio 45402

Street Parking (Lawn parking across Memorial Hall available weather permitting)

To learn more...

www.cfrdayton.weebly.com

call 937.276.4077

 facebook.com/CfRDayton

Presented by the Congregation for Reconciliation, UCC.