

2025 Commemoration of Fair Housing Month

Celebrating Fair Housing, the Cornerstone of Equity in Housing Opportunity

April 3, 2025: Sinclair Conference Center

Silent Auction Items
Bidding Opens 11:00 AM

Hot Air Balloon Ride for 2 with Complimentary Champagne
Donated by: Houser Asphalt and Concrete

Fair Market Value: $550

$250 Gift Certificate for Concrete Work

Donated by: Houser Asphalt and Concrete and 8" x 10" Bernard Kleina Photo Portrait of Coretta Scott King from MVFHC.

Fair Market Value: $350

$250 Gift Certificate for Asphalt Work

Donated by: Houser Asphalt and Concrete and 8" x 10" Bernard Kleina Photo Portrait of Coretta Scott King from MVFHC.

Fair Market Value: $350

Dance to *THE MOVEMENT — A Giclee Print created in commemoration of the 50th Anniversary of the Fair Housing Act.

Artist is Alice Gatewood Waddell – Fair Market Value: $450

Alice says, "As an African artist I portray works that remind us of the past and present struggles and accomplishments of an oppressed race. Many of my creations are simply commentaries on both rural and urban life experiences."

Museum Framed with gallery hooks and no-glare glass. Backing air-tight.

Frame outer dimensions 31.25" w x 25.5" h

100% acid free matt 2.5" w

Print 22" w x 16" h

Natural dark wooden frame with walnut finish 1.5"

“Stop Hate” Art Photo by Bernard Kleina - Fair Market Value: $450

The Artist wrote this:

“I photograph so that others can see what I saw, feel what I felt and better understand what perhaps I understood for the first time. My camera is not just an extension of my eye, but an extension of my heart. Senator Elizabeth Warren said, “There is no virtue in Silence.” My goal in life is to break that silence with my photographs.”

Museum Framed with gallery hooks and no-glare glass. Backing air-tight.
Frame outer dimensions 23” w x 19” h
100% acid free matt 2.5” w
Photo 14” w x 11” high (10.5” visible on height)
Black wooden frame 1.5”

Hand Stitched Amish Quilt – and Gift Basket of assorted Amish items.

Fair Market Value: $400

The Quilt was made recently with cutout fabric prepared in the 1930’s.
The quilt pieces came from an Amish Estate.

4 tickets to a Dayton Dragons game in May or June, 2025
Fair Market Value: $100